

Key Concepts for Compounds

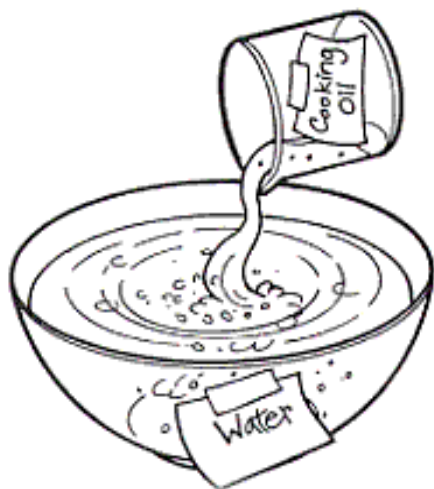

Compounds—

two or more elements that are chemically combined

Mixtures—

two or more substances (compounds) that are mixed together but are not chemically combined (bonded)

Solutions—

mixtures in which molecules are dissolved and uniformly distributed into one another

